THE JUMP

• The Bryant men's basketball team continues its three-game road trip on Friday night as it visits Rutgers for the fifth time.

• Bryant is 106-79 overall, 65-18 at home and 61-34 in league play since the start of the 2020-21 season. The Bulldogs have won 20+ games in three of the last five seasons.

• Jamion Christian is in his second season as Bryant head coach, his 12th season as a collegiate head coach and his 14th as a head coach. He spent six years at Mount St. Mary's going to a pair of NCAA Tournaments.

• Bryant returns just two players that saw significant playing time in 2025-26; starters Ty Tabales and Keegan Harvey. The Bulldogs had two players graduate, while 10 transferred. Those departures made Bryant active in the offseason as it added four transfers and seven true freshmen.

• Bryant is 1-3 so far this year, earning an 80-75 win over Siena before falling to Quinnipiac (66-56), Fairfield (68-59) and Providence (78-55). Bryant made 6-of-11 from three over the final 12 minutes of the contest to defeat the defending Metro champion Siena. Bryant is just 23-of-92 from three in the three losses.

• Keegan Harvey picked up where he left off last year, recording a 20pt-12reb double-double on Monday. Dating back to last season, Harvey has recored 20+ points in five of his last 11 games. Harvey leads Bryant with 12.0 ppg.

• Andre Pasha collected his first career double-double on Sunday, posting 12 points and 10 boards. He enters Friday averaging 7.3 ppg and 7.3 rpg in his first season at Bryant after transferring from New Haven.

JAMION CHRISTIAN

HEAD COACH » SECOND SEASON
MOUNT ST. MARY'S '04 » 𝕏 @JAMIONCHRISTIAN

Jamion Christian begins his second season as the head coach of the Bryant men's basketball team in 2026-27.

The 10th head coach in program history, Christian came to Bryant from Pallacanestro Trieste of the Italian Professional Basketball League along with prior head coaching positions at George Washington University, Siena College and Mount St. Mary's University.

One of the most highly touted young coaches in college basketball, Christian brings 19 years of collegiate coaching experience plus two years of coaching at the professional level in Italy to Bryant. He has served as the head coach of Italy's Serie A program team, Pallacanestro Trieste, for the last two seasons, and has had head coaching stops at Mount St. Mary's, Siena and George Washington. In 2020, Christan was listed 14th on ESPN's Top 40 under 40 ranking of the best young college coaches in the country.

Bryant finished 9-22 overall and 5-11 in the America East in Christian's first season in 2025-26. The Black and Gold featured a brand new roster, including a program-record 10 freshmen. Bryant placed two on the America East All-Rookie Team, with freshman point guard Ty Tables becoming the first rookie in program history to post 250+ points, 100+ assists and 30+ steals.

Christian joined Trieste for the 2023-24 season and led the club to a Serie A2 playoff championship and a return to the Italy's top league, Serie A, for the 2024-25 season. He has posted a 41-24 record in his two seasons and currently has the club in sixth place in the 16-team league.

A 2004 graduate of Mount St. Mary's, Christian made a name for himself as one of the best young coaches in college basketball, earning his first head coaching opportunity in 2012 at his alma mater at the age of 29. Christian would lead the Mountaineers for the next six seasons, winning Northeast Conference Championships and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2017. The 2017 team also won an NCAA Tournament game, defeating the University of New Orleans in the First Four.

Christian compiled a 101-95 overall record and a 67-39 conference record at the Mount, earning NEC Coach of the Year honors in 2017.
