Tournament Notes

- Luca Bluett and John Kim are the first-ever Santa Clara men's tennis players to qualify for the NCAA Individual Championships. They are one of the 32 doubles teams that will compete in the 2025 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Singles and Doubles Championships. 64 singles players will be competing also but Bluett and Kim will play only the doubles.
- The Bronco tandem qualified with three straight wins at the ITA Sectional Championships (Nov. 6-9) in Berkeley, California to earn an automatic qualifying bid.

- Singles action starts on Tuesday while Bluett and Kim will begin doubles play on Wednesday against Aaron Sandler and Manfredi Graziani of Penn. The start time has not been determined yet.

Season Notes

Season

- The last and only time Santa Clara had a qualifier at the NCAA Individual Championships was in 2014 when women's player Katie Le played in her third consecutive singles championship from 2012-14.
- The 2012 SCU men's team qualified for the NCAA Team Championships.
- To qualify for this year's NCAA Individual Championships, Bluett and Kim won three straight matches at the ITA Sectional Championships. They beat Arizona's Filip Gustafsson and Oskar Jansson 6-7 (4-7), 7-5, 1-0 (11-9) in the opening round of 16. That was followed by a straight set victory over Tal Goodman and Hiroki Sakagawa of UC Irvine 6-4, 6-1 in the quarterfinals. And in the semifinals they downed Pepperdine's Gustavo R de Alemeida and Lasse Poertner 6-1, 5-7, 1-0 (10-5). The finalists and third place finisher at the sectionals received a qualifying bid to the NCAA Championships.
- This fall, Bluett and Kim have a 6-3 record while paired together.
- Last season, their first playing together, Bluett and Kim were a combined 14-7 including 12-6 in dual matches and 2-1 over the fall. All 12 wins in the spring came atop the doubles lineup helping them land second team All-West Coast Conference honors.

Team

- Santa Clara is led by head coach Niall Angus who is in his 10th season at the helm and assisted by Josh Page who is in his second season.
- Angus is currently the second winningest coach in Santa Clara men's tennis history with 118 wins entering the 2026 spring dual match season. Sean Burns is the all-time winningest coach with 130 career wins.
- The fall roster is comprised of eight players this fall, all returnees from last season when they finished 15-9 overall including 5-2 in the West Coast Conference. The league record was good for a second place tie.
- Last season, the Broncos were ranked nationally for 11 straight weeks and finished No. 73 nationally, qualifying for the WCC Tournament for the seventh straight season.
- In the mid-major rankings, they finished No. 25 and in the Northwest Regionals rankings, No. 6. Luca Bluett and Kim were ranked No. 8 in the Northwest Regional doubles list.
- Four returners garnered All-WCC recognitions: Bluett and Kim were named to the doubles second team. Bluett also made singles honorable mention along with Watanabe Eriksson and Luca Lemaitre.
- The team lost just one player from last season, Payton Jim-On.
